

You are invited to an event that you can be exposed to Turkish Culture and Art! Enjoy Turkish cuisine, handcrafts, music, and dance with friends of Turkey in the Detroit area and beyond!

Turkey, being a country where the east meets the west, - some might think that this is a mere cliché - therefore, a country where one would observe what both the west and the east offers, presents a very diverse understanding of art and culture.

Turkish Culture and Art Night provides an unique opportunity for you and your friends to discover the cultural diversity of different regions in Turkey and to explore the foundation of this diversity: Turkish Arts.

The Turkish American Cultural Association of Michigan (TACAM) invites you to join us in introducing Turkish cuisine, culture and art.

There will be a variety of meze and homemade baklava made by volunteer members of the TACAM community.

We are happy to announce that the TACAM Ensemble, a local live Turkish Folk Music (Turk Sanat Muzigi) and Fasil group, will be performing, as well as DJ Zoltan will be playing his great Turkish music collection. The TACAM Ensemble is composed of Yasemin Inan, Singer; Dilek Engin, Violin; Laith Alattar, Ud; and Murat Ulasir, Darbuka (Drum).

In addition, we will have a wonderful folk dance performance by TACAM Folklore team as well as a great magnificent belly dance performance by Solvikelma Belly Dancers Extraordinaire.

Furthermore, there will be handcraft gallery and presentation on culture and art of different ethnics live in Turkey.

You must RSVP and send your check to TACAM (Checks made out to TACAM) by 12 January 2010 in order to get a discounted rate! Be sure to include the name(s) of all individuals attending the event.
